

West Virginia's Capitol, completed at a cost of approximately ten million dollars, is two miles east of the capitol building, which was destroyed by fire in 1921. Wheeling was the first capital city, then Charleston, and then Wheeling a second time. Charleston has had the Capitol since 1885. The celebrated golden dome of the Capitol carries $25,000 worth of gold leaf.

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C.T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.)

POST CARD

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

W. VA. 1— West Virginia State Capitol and Kanawha River, Charleston, W. Va.

